

Viet Cong terrorists kill 150 South Vietnamese civilians in raid

SAIGON UPI — Communist terrorists stormed into a remote South Vietnamese town and killed 150 of its residents, a government official said today.

Nguyen Thanh Hung, assistant to the social welfare minister, told newsmen the Viet Cong guerrillas wounded another 50 persons and burned down about 100 houses.

He said the attack took place Monday night at Thanh Binh district town in Quang Tin province, south of the giant Marine base at Da Nang. Hung said reports of the attack just reached Saigon.

U.S. and South Vietnamese military headquarters announced they were checking on the reports. Such a bloody attack is almost unprecedented, even for the terrorists who have been mounting a major campaign this week to frighten would be voters in Sunday's South Vietnamese elections.

The terrorism has been centered in the northern provinces, where Thanh Binh is located. Hung said his ministry has begun shipping food, blankets and other supplies to survivors of the raid.

In Saigon's suburbs, more Viet Cong guerrillas ambushed an 800-man U.S. Army helicopter assault force, American spokesmen said.

They said eight GIs were killed and 34 wounded in the 10 hour battle that raged after the Communists sprang their trap 14 miles from the center of the capital. Three guerrillas were reported killed before the Viet Cong apparently fled late Wednesday night.

Despite expanded anti-terror action by U.S. and Allied forces, military spokesmen reported more Communist guerrilla raids today. They said the Communists, mounting what spokesmen call the greatest terror wave of the war, killed one American and wounded seven in today's predawn assaults. One Vietnamese civilian was killed and 11 wounded in the raids.

Hitting back, U.S. commanders sent huge Air Force B52s back to the North-South Vietnamese border before dawn. They dropped scores of tons of bombs on units of three Communist invasion divisions.

Farther north, U.S. Air Force and Navy jets struck North Vietnam's "MIG Alley" industrial targets Wednesday, spokesmen said. They reported no losses.

The pilots hit against the Hoa Lac MIG fighter base 20 miles from Hanoi, disregarding decoy dummy aircraft set out by the Communists to trick the Americans. The pilots reported blasting the runway, taxiway and plane parking areas. They also said they destroyed a bridge 39 miles from the port city of Haiphong.

The Viet Cong ambush near Saigon followed a series of massive raids in the northern provinces that included the freeing of 1,353 Communist guerrillas and other criminals from a government prison at the coastal city of Quang Ngai.

NEW HALL FOR COEDS—Construction of the basic framework has reached the second story of DePauw University's new residence hall for independent women. The hall is located at the T-intersection of Locust and Howard streets and is slated to be ready for occupancy in September, 1968. A series of squares partially overlapped to create an accordion-like profile, the hall will house 144 women in 24 six-student suites. The contemporary structure will be faced with red brick and will be fully air conditioned.

Milwaukee police are challenged by priest

MILWAUKEE, Wis. UPI — A militant Roman Catholic priest whose open housing followers were hauled away kicking and screaming from a burned out "Freedom House" issued, in effect, a challenge to police to repeat the action tonight on church grounds.

The Rev. James E. Groppi vowed he would hold a rally tonight on the grounds of St. Boniface Roman Catholic church where he serves as an assistant pastor.

The church is in a heavily Negro neighborhood which formed the heart of last month's riot scene.

A rally Wednesday night led to a third night of violence in connection with open housing demonstrations by the youth council of the Milwaukee chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The rally was in defiance of an emergency prohibition of marches, demonstrations and parades in between 4 p.m. and 9 a.m. daily.

Groppi shouted charges that Mayor Henry W. Maier was the "dictator of a police state" when heavily armed police stormed the burned-out ruins of the council headquarters and hauled about 53 Negroes off to jail. Thirty of the arrested were adults, the rest juveniles.

Police said they were only enforcing the hastily passed proclamation which placed the city in a state of emergency for 30 days because of racial violence for the second time within a month.

The ordinance was passed to prevent open housing marches by the militant civil rights group to the south side Polish neighborhood where Tuesday night marchers were met with rocks, bottles and eggs, tossed by part of the 13,000 whites who met them.

Groppi, firebrand militant priest whose action has drawn a rebuke by his archbishop, replied to police Wednesday night, "all we were trying to do was gather for a few speeches and some prayers. Is this America?"

Police said the proclamation was violated by the sustained jeering, singing and general commotion of the youth council members gathered on the porch outside the charred shell of their headquarters, firebombed while they marched on the south side Tuesday night. Firemen fighting that fire were pinned down by sniper fire before they could fight the blaze.

Under Mayor Maier's orders, Police Capt. Arnold Kramer led 50 to 75 officers into the freedom house area where an estimated 200 slogan-shouting, sign-carrying demonstrators had gathered.

Kramer declared the gathering an "unlawful assembly" and ordered it dispersed "in the name of the mayor." For an answer, a rock was thrown from the darkness. It struck Kramer under the eye and there was blood on his face as he directed the action which followed.

Red Guards humiliate Britain's chief diplomat

LONDON UPI—Chinese Red Guards seized Donald Hopson, Britain's chief diplomat in Peking, Wednesday, forced him to bow in a sign of humiliation and tried to cut off his hair, reports to the Foreign Office said.

The attack came as China hinted at a break in diplomatic relations. Britain was so angered that Foreign Secretary George Brown sent a personal note to Chinese Foreign Minister Chen Yi demanding that the Chinese government "return to relations conducive to proper conduct of international affairs."

Earlier China put the entire staff of the British diplomatic mission in Peking under virtual house arrest.

Reports from Peking said the Red Guards seized Hopson, 52-year-old Charge D'Affaires, as he left his office to receive the Chinese protest. The reports said the youthful fanatics forced down Hopson's head as a "sign of abject humiliation" while they attempted to cut off his hair. Chinese troops stepped in and cleared a way for Hopson to the Foreign Ministry.

The Peking protest said restrictions limiting the British mission staff to their homes or offices were in retaliation for the "illegal and barbarous acts" allegedly committed against Chinese diplomatic personnel in London Tuesday by "fascist British imperialists."

This was a reference to clashes outside the Chinese legation in which Peking diplomats wielding baseball bats and hatchets attacked British police and civilians. Twelve persons including eight Chinese were injured.

The protest note added ominously that "the Chinese government hereby asks the British government in all seriousness: where do you want to press relations between Britain and China?" This was interpreted as a veiled threat to break relations.

Peking announced it was withdrawing exit visas granted earlier to a few British mission members.

Chinese authorities have remained unresponsive to repeated British requests for the evacuation of 35 women and children of mission in Peking.

Brown interrupted his vacation for the second time to consult with his top advisers on the highly explosive situation.

Auto Workers Union will name their strike target

DETROIT UPI — The United Auto Workers Union today names the auto company that will be its strike target in efforts to win the biggest contract gains ever sought by the UAW.

Ford Motor Co. remained the most likely target. There was a possibility that UAW president Walter P. Reuther might decide to tackle the industry's most profitable firm, General Motors Corp.

The decision was to be announced at 5:30 p.m. EDT.

The national UAW councils of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler Corp. were holding separate meetings today to hear reports from the union's International Executive Board and formally rejected contract offers made by the three companies Tuesday.

The IEB, headed by Reuther, flatly refused industry's offer Tuesday.

The councils also were scheduled to get the word on which company would be the target and receive instructions on procedures leading up to the strike deadline, midnight next Wednesday.

The council of the target company would be told to gear for a strike. The other two would plan strike support action.

Emotionally, the union would like to pick General Motors as the target firm to demonstrate it is not afraid to tackle the biggest manufacturing corporation in the world.

But Ford was considered the most likely firm because it is the middle company. Chrysler is too small and its profits much smaller than either Ford or GM.

Anti-Maoists threaten 'blood bath' in Canton

HONG KONG UPI — Anti-Mao Tse-tung rebels backed by army troops have threatened a "10-day bloodbath" in Canton to wipe out pro-Mao red guards supported by the air force and navy, travelers quoted by rightwing Hong Kong newspapers said today.

The arrivals from South China's largest city said Canton is in a virtual state of anarchy. They said top officials were rushing to Peking for emergency meetings to head off the scheduled Friday start of what could become civil war, the newspapers reported.

Arrivals from Canton were quoted as saying air force and naval authorities had issued more than 30,000 firearms, including machine guns, to Maoist forces for their defense. They said Maoists also seized large quantities of bazookas destined for North Vietnam.

The anti-Mao forces were said to be capable of mobilizing at least 100,000 men for a coordinated assault on Canton by land and water.

According to the arrivals, anti-Maoists have left Canton proper to organize assault forces in the suburbs. Headquarters was said to be in nearby Fa-Yin county, where peasants have pledged full support.

The travelers said the Canton garrison of the Communist Chinese army, previously reported to have mutinied against the authority of party chairman Mao, was backing the anti-Maoists.

The nation's air force and navy, neither particularly potent, were said to be aligned with pro-Mao elements.

The rightwing papers said Peking reportedly sent 65,000 new troops into Canton. But the force declared itself neutral and refused to line up with either side for the feared battle, the reports said.

Officers of the Peking-sent units reportedly said they were ordered to Canton to suppress "lawless elements" and were not to get involved in factional fights.

Time to start peace negotiations Arabs told

Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser and Jordan's King Hussein implied in speeches to the Arab summit conference the time had come to negotiate peace in the Middle East conflict, informed sources said today.

The sources said Nasser told a secret session of the summit Wednesday that unless there was complete and unified agreement by all Arabs to return to the battlefield against Israel, they would have to find "alternative solutions."

The sources said Nasser was fully aware that moderate Arab nations such as Saudi Arabia and Kuwait demurred from militant proposals and thus he knew the unanimity he demanded to resume the battle was an impossible condition. Israel defeated Arab armies in a June 5-10 war and occupies parts of Jordan, Egypt and Syria.

Nasser and Saudi Arabia's King Faisal took a giant stride toward unity

Three land in jail

Paul H. Alward, 34, city, and Gene Raymond Ewing, 18, Danville, were arrested and lodged in the Putnam County jail by Sheriff Bob Albright Wednesday afternoon on theft charges.

Albright said the two were specifically charged with taking 705 bushels of corn belonging to Joe Stultz at Russellville.

Joe Osborne, 28, was arrested in Roachdale at 1:50 this morning by Sheriff Albright.

Osborne was booked at the jail for public intoxication and disorderly conduct.

First tropical storm of season churning

MIAMI UPI Tardy Arlene, the season's first tropical storm, inched across the far eastern Atlantic today probably building to hurricane force.

Forecasters at Miami's National Hurricane Center, who watched the disturbance building slowly during the day Wednesday, expected the winds to grow to hurricane velocity of 75 miles an hour.

At midnight the storm watchers pinpointed Arlene about 1,300 miles south-east of Bermuda. The storm was moving west-northwest at 12 miles an hour, puffing winds of 60 miles an hour, with gales extending about 150 miles, mostly in the northern semi-circle. Arlene was expected to continue that course, with the winds intensifying slightly.

Arlene was expected to develop into a hurricane within a day, but would not be a threat to any land for at least two days.

Hurricane hunters said the storm was relatively small, with an eye five miles in diameter, and presently is of "principal interest only to shipping."

Wednesday night when they met and agreed on a plan to end the five-year Yemen civil war.

Nasser and Faisal each supported an opposing faction, Republicans and Royalists, in the Yemen fighting.

In Jerusalem, on the final day for the return of Jordanian refugees to the Israeli-occupied west bank of the Jordan River, there were reports that previously approved refugees could return after the deadline.

Algeria urged other Arab nations to follow its lead and nationalize American oil firms.

Nasser and Hussein set the mood at the Arab summit in speeches to a closed session Wednesday. They each spoke of Arab strength and unity but tempered those remarks with hints of negotiated settlement of the war they lost to Israel.

Police report mishap

City police reported this morning that a rather unusual mishap occurred Wednesday evening at 609 Crescent Drive.

Police said a parked 1963 Chevrolet owned by Max J. O'Hair rolled out of a private drive and hit the right rear side of a parked 1964 Chevrolet owned by John W. Lindley, West Union, Ill.

Officer Larry Rogers estimated the damage at $300 to the Lindley auto and only $6 to O'Hair's car.

Ronald L. Hockema is fatally injured

Ronald Lee Hockema, 16, Greencastle, Route 5, a passenger in one of two automobiles involved in a collision on a Tippecanoe County road at 2 p.m. Wednesday, died of injuries suffered in the crash on arrival at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Lafayette, state police at the Putnamville Post reported this morning.

The accident occurred 3.7 miles south of Lafayette on the South River Road, police said.

Drivers of the cars involved were John Rohler, 18, and Robert Engert, 16, both of Lafayette.

Police said five other occupants of the two cars were injured.

Ronald was born January 24, 1951, in Lafayette, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Hockema.

The family lived in Lafayette until 1957, then moved to Clay City and later to Petersburg in 1963. They have resided in Greencastle since 1966.

Ronald was a junior in Greencastle High School, a member of the basketball B-team, a member of the Greencastle High School baseball team, Greencastle High School Bowling League and Golf team, and the Greencastle High School Cross Country Track team. He was also a member of the Gobin Memorial Church and held an office in MYF of Gobin Church.

Survivors are: his parents, one sister, Karen Sue, at home; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rohler, Dayton, Ind.; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Abbie Hockema, Lafayette, R. 8, and other relatives.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10:30 at the Whitaker Funeral Home in Greencastle. Rev. James Jones will officiate. Graveside services will be held at the Lafayette Rest Haven Memorial Park cemetery at 3:00 p.m.

Calling hours at the Whitaker Funeral Home are after 4:00 p.m. Friday.

Man wounded
in police chase

PLYMOUTH, Ind. UPI — Robert Combs, 30, R.R. 3, Plymouth, remained in critical condition today with wounds suffered Wednesday in a gunfight with pursuing police officers.

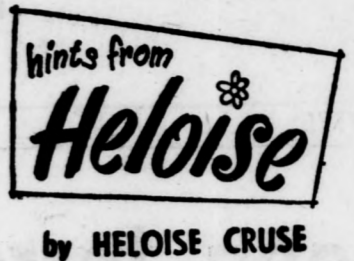

Police said they shot Combs in the legs and side with a 12-gauge shotgun and a .38 caliber revolver when he fired at them with a .22 caliber rifle following a high speed chase.

Patrolman Thomas Wilson suffered minor injuries when his patrol car was forced off the road during the chase and struck a tree.

At the time of the incident, officers were seeking Combs on a charge of assault and battery involving the alleged beating of a woman.

The chase along U.S. 30 ended when shots fired by Wilson and Patrolman Gary Duff flattened a rear tire of Combs' car and forced it to stop.

As the officers approached the car, they said, Combs got out with the rifle and fired a shot at them. Duff said he ordered Combs to stop and then shot him in the legs with the shotgun. As Combs continued to advance toward them, Wilson said he shot him in the side with his service revolver.

Dear Heloise:

Since moths have no season, I have found an easy way to "de-moth" closets.

I partly fill a sock with moth crystals and attach it with a rubber band over the end of the hose of my electric hair dryer (without the bonnet). Then I put the dryer on the closet shelf and let it run for 10 minutes or so, on cold. NO HEAT whatsoever.

This is much easier than using the vacuum cleaner attachment and can be moved effortlessly from closet to closet.

Mrs. Fay Hare

I'm going to give you a gold star for that hint! Here's something else I learned from a vacuum cleaner salesman.

When storing off-season clothing, place them in a garment bag and hang it on the rod in the closet. Then, with the sock of moth crystals tied over the end, stick part of the vacuum hose into the bag. Close the zipper nearly all the way, leaving only enough opening for the hose to go through.

When the hose is put in the "blowing" end of the vacuum, and it's turned on, the bag will puff out like a balloon and collect all the fumes. After a few minutes, all I do is gently remove the wand and hose and finish closing the zipper.

Each garment may be done separately or a full bag at a time.

Real neat and easy.

Terre Haute woman named director of scout organization

Mrs. William F. Fry, a native Terre Hautean and graduate of Indiana State University, has been named executive director of the Covered Bridge Girl Scout Council, Inc.

The announcement was made Monday (Aug. 28) by Mrs. Ernest Roth, Bainbridge, president of the Council board of directors, and followed immediately the board's action in approving the appointment.

Mrs. Fry, who has just completed a two-year appointment as state supervisor with the Indiana Department of Public Instruction, assumed her new position on Monday also at the Council headquarters at 710 Seabury. She succeeds Mrs. Mary Jo Banoff who accepted a position this June with the National Field Service of the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. as a council advisor for Region VI with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga. During the interim period, Mrs. John E. Lindeman, camp director for the Covered Bridge Council and a member of the field staff, served as acting executive director.

Mrs. Fry's work with the State Department of Public Instruction concerned consultant services for the health education occupations in the division of vocational and technical education, and she travelled throughout the state in the course of her duties.

Prior to her state department position, Mrs. Fry was associated with the Vigo County School Corporation and founded the initial program in practical nursing education at the time of the organization of the corporation in 1962. She was associate director of nursing services and nursing education at Union Hospital for 16 years before joining the school corporation.

She received both her undergraduate degree in nursing education and the Master of Arts degree in general education and guidance from Indiana State University. Title of her master's thesis was "A Look at Nursing Education Programs Today."

Mrs. Fry, who lives on East Poplar St. Rd. has worked as a volunteer in Girl Scouting and in Boy Scouting. She was camp nurse for the Girl Scout camp at McCormack's Creek and served as den mother when her son, John, attended Thornton School and was a member of the Cub pack there. He is now a student at Glenn Junior High School. Her husband is an engineer with the Pennsylvania Railroad on the St. Louis-Indianapolis run. She is presently a member of the board of directors of the Family Service Association.

In making the announcement for the board, Mrs. Roth pointed out that "while Mrs. Fry is new to professional Girl Scouting, her past experience in youth-serving fields and her administrative responsibilities qualify her very well for the post as executive director of our Council which extends over a 14-county wide area in Indiana and Illinois and serves almost 5,000 Girl Scouts." The board, Mrs. Roth added, has been at work all summer on the appointment of an executive director.

Let me try.

Bleach won't touch it. Don't waste your energy or the bleach. Grab a wash rag and pour lots of rubbing alcohol on it, and rub the stained portion between folds of the alcohol soaked rag.

Betcha it'll work. And don't ask me why, but it does.

Ordered to shoot

NEW DELHI UPI — Troops and police have been ordered to shoot rioters "on sight" in the Indian state of Bihar, a spokesman for the state government said Wednesday. The state has been torn by clashes between Hindus and Moslems locked in a language dispute.

Sign agreement

RAWALPINDI UPI — Pakistan Wednesday signed an inter-governmental loan agreement with West Germany by which the Germans pledged more than $30 million capital aid.

Seventh District Congressman John Myers greeted members of the Albert Williams family of Greencastle during their recent visit to the nation's capital. Pictured on the steps of the Capitol Building are, from the left, Congressman Myers; Reed Williams, graduate student at Indiana University in Bloomington; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Williams, 314 N. Arlington St., Greencastle; Mrs. Williams' brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Timmons, formerly of Greencastle, now living in Rockville, Md., and their two sons, Bruce and Scott.

New trend in public housing

WASHINGTON UPI—President Johnson's plan to create a "new community" for 25,000 people on surplus federal land in the nation's capital may be the start of a new trend in public housing.

The President announced plans Wednesday to develop housing, stores, schools and recreation facilities on a 335-acre government-owned tract in the northeast corner of Washington.

A special cabinet-level task force will survey surplus federal property in other cities across the nation to determine whether the land could be used for similar developments.

The new community in Washington would contain 1,500 low-income apartments, 2,200 moderate-income housing units, and 800 high-income apartments, houses and townhouses.

The President emphasized, however, the new development would be "more than a housing project." He said it would offer "a full range of educational, recreation and shopping facilities to citizens of every station."

"It is my hope that this concept, if it can be applied successfully in the nation's capital, will be useful elsewhere in the country," Johnson said.

The President said the housing will be "built and operated under the new turnkey concept." This means private contractors would build the apartments to specifications and sell them to a public authority for a predetermined price.

The public authority would then contract with private interests to manage the housing development.

Sister of missing man found dead

KENNETT SQUARE, Pa. UPI—Mrs. Katherine Thompson Wood, 74, wealthy society matron and sister of James H. W. Thompson, missing in Thailand silk tycoon, was found beaten to death Wednesday at her isolated estate.

Pennsylvania state police said Mrs. Wood had been beaten savagely on the head with a heavy weapon. Repeated blows had crushed her skull. Two huge watch dogs she kept for protection in the home where she lived alone apparently were nearby unharmed.

A domestic reporting for work Wednesday morning found the woman dead in her bed. The murder weapon was not found immediately.

Mrs. Wood's body was taken to Coatesville Hospital for an autopsy today.

State police said there were no signs of a robbery but the victim's son, Harrison Wilson of Paoli, Pa., reported a diamond necklace worth several thousand dollars was not found immediately.

Mrs. Wood's estate is located in a lonely area just outside Centerville, Del., across the state line. Investigators said the victim usually left the house open but recently there were no servants living in the house.

Thompson vanished while visiting friends in Malaysia last March. A native of Greenville, Del., Thompson combined his love for Thailand with a $700 investment and turned it into a $1.5 million silk business in Bangkok.

Says Schroeder's condition serious

HAMBURG, Germany UPI—West German Defense Minister Gerhard Schroeder, 56, was reported in serious condition today following a heart attack.

A government communique issued in Bonn Wednesday said Schroeder, perhaps the nation's most pro-American leader, suffered a heart attack Monday afternoon.

He apparently fell when the attack occurred at his vacation home on the North Sea island of Sylt and suffered head injuries. First reports, attributed to Schroeder's wife, said he had fallen after slipping on a fruit peel.

The communique said Schroeder was semi-conscious.

Schroeder had been combating efforts by Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger in recent weeks to make him accept a smaller defense appropriation than he requested. It finally was announced a reshuffle of the nation's armed forces would obviate the need for the cuts.

Farm prices down for month of August

WASHINGTON UPI — Farm prices fell one-third of 1 per cent during the month ending Aug. 15, the Agriculture Department said Wednesday.

The decrease ended a three month advance for farm prices which had been rising since the end of an eight-month slump in mid-April.

Wednesday's report showed that farm prices are still 6 per cent below the peak prices reached in mid-August of last year before the long decline began.

At the same time, the report said farm production costs eased slightly from the record level reached in mid-July.

Indiana I-74 completed

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Indiana's first stretch of interstate highway was completed Wednesday with the opening of a 13.5-mile stretch of Interstate 74 in Montgomery and Fountain Counties.

The section completing the 151-mile route across the mid-section of the state from Illinois to Ohio was opened to traffic without ceremony.

A spokesman for the Indiana State Highway Department said so many sections of interstate highways are now being opened that special ceremonies rarely are scheduled. An 11-mile segment of Interstate 70 was to be opened today in Vigo County.

The mid-August index of prices received by farmers for crops and livestock stood at 256 per cent of the 1910-14 base period compared with 257 per cent in mid-July and 271 per cent in mid-August a year ago.

The index of farm costs stood at 343 per cent of the base period compared with 345 per cent in mid-July and 335 per cent a year ago.

The report showed the cost of production and living supplies purchased by farmers dropped slightly during the month, but were still 2 per cent above a year ago.

Successful camping season reported by Covered Bridge Girl Scout Council

A highly successful camping season is reported by the Covered Bridge Girl Scout Council.

The staff of 30 included a waterfront staff of four, trained in life saving and water safety, under the direction of Donna Knox, of New Albany who will be a junior this Fall at Indiana State University. She was assisted by Jean Wilkinson and Libby White, both of Terre Haute, and Martha Graham, from Martinsville, Ind.

Each camper, Mrs. Lindeman pointed out, swam once a day, with half an hour for instruction and half an hour free play. The campers could also have "midnight" swims, under supervision of the waterfront staff, at 8 o'clock in the evening if they so desired. For those qualified, there was also canoeing activities on the lake, and canoe rides for the younger girls who were required to wear life jackets when in the canoes. The girls did some fishing with homemade gear, and there were some good sized bluegills caught, according to the report. One of the fish, at least, was eaten by the camp cat, it was reliably rumored by one source.

Martha Whipple of Salem, Ind., was assistant director, and Sarah Huffman, of Muncie, was business manager.

Summer projects included planting of pine trees at the lodge by the counselors-in-training. Girls in the Pine Tree, or pioneer unit, planted trees also at their camp site where they lived in pup tents, slept in sleeping bags, and cooked most of their meals over the open campfire.

The international counselor this year was Miss Helen Suter from Zurich, Switzerland, who took leave from her job as a secretary in the International Business Machines office in Zurich to come to Na-Wa-Kwa this summer. Miss Suter, who had worked with girls in Switzerland in camping, speaks English, French and German and found that the Girl Scouts at Na-Wa-Kwa enjoyed very much learning Swiss games and songs which she taught them. Miss Suter is planning a bus tour of the United States after she spends the weekend in Terre Haute with Mr. and Mrs. Guida Miescher of Elk Drive.

The Council also carried on a day camp program for Brownies who do not attend established camp and for Juniors, Cadettes and Seniors in addition to the established camp problem for these three age levels. A total of 1,265 Girl Scouts attended day camp at sites throughout the Council jurisdiction. There were 185 girls attending at Deming Park and Camp Wildwood from the Vigo county area, according to a report by Miss Annette Burgermeister of the council's professional staff who is day camp coordinator and works with the adult Girl Scout volunteers who staff the day camps and direct the program there.

The following girls from this area attended one of the four 12-day established camp sessions at Na-Wa-Kwa during the season:

Greencastle Area:
First: Sheila D. Burnside, Teresa Chase, Karen Conrad, Cynthia Heinlein, Alexis A. Phillips, Rebecca L. Poe, Deidre M. Shepherd, Connie S. Twigg, Stephanie S. Tzouanakis.

Opening lead—five of spades.

There are two sides to a coin,

as any numismatist will tell you, and there are likewise two sides to a bridge hand, as any expert will tell you.

Today's hand occurred in a team of four match and caused quite a stir among the participants. At the first table, after

East had passed, South opened two notrump and that became the contract.

What happened to South

thereafter was not very pleasant. The defense started out with five spade tricks, on which declarer discarded two hearts and a club in the hope of holding his losses to down one.

East then cashed the ace of hearts and shifted to a club.

When it turned out that the diamonds were badly divided,

South wound up going down four—200 points—despite the original promise of his hand.

However, this loss did not prove to be insuperable because, when their teammates came to play the hand sitting East-

West, the bidding went as follows:

East South West North

1 3 4 4

4 5 5 6

Pass Pass 6 6

Pass Dble

South led the king of diamonds and East proceeded to make twelve tricks despite South's 20-point hand. The opening lead made no difference,

since East could make the slam against any method of defense.

With the ace of clubs well situated, the hearts divided 4-3, and the trumps divided 2-1,

there was nothing South could do to stop the contract.

So East-West scored 1,660 points for a team gain of 1,460 points, which would seem to indicate that the East at the first table should also have opened the bidding with a spade. You could of course attribute the extraordinary outcome to just the rub of the green, but then again you could also say that the dramatically contradictory

results were just the other side of the coin.

Eddie Stanky believes his White Sox still have chance for pennant

By Sam Goldaper
UPI Sports Writer

That's the Boston Red Sox cry these days—if you stretch your memory to the days of Ted Williams, Vern Stephens and Bobby Doerr.

However, Eddie Stanky, the Little Old Miracle Worker of that 1951 New York Giants' team which opened their National League pennant drive 13½ games behind in second place in late August, figures his Chicago White Sox can make it yet.

"We may be No. 4 today," said the Chicago skipper after his team cracked a two-game losing streak by besting the Washington Senators 5-1, Wednesday night, "but we try harder."

Boston completed 40 innings of hard-fought baseball in just under 24 hours Wednesday afternoon by edging the New York Yankees 2-1 in the 11th inning.

Minnesota, beaten by Baltimore 4-2 in the 10th inning, trails the Red Sox by 1½ games as does Detroit, which lost to California 3-2. The White Sox are 2½ games out. In the other American League game, Kansas City nipped Cleveland 6-5 in 12 innings.

In the National League, the St. Louis Cardinals remained 10 games ahead of the Cincinnati Reds by beating the New York Mets 2-0, Cincinnati defeated Philadelphia, 2-1, the Pittsburgh Pirates outslugged the Atlanta Braves, 11-9; the Chicago Cubs whipped the Houston Astros 4-1, and the Los Angeles Dodgers clubbed the San Francisco Giants 9-3.

The short stay Tommie Agee spent riding the White Sox bench may have been the cure-all for his weak hitting. The White Sox' centerfielder collected three hits, drove in one run and scored two others.

Fred Klages yielded five hits in the six innings he worked before giving way for a pinch-hitter. Bob Locker finished up and held the Senators in check.

California came up with two runs in the ninth inning to best the Tigers. Bubba Morton doubled in Jimmie Hall and scored the winning run on Bill Skowron's infield grounder.

Earl Wilson, an 18-game winner, was coasting along on a two-hitter until Morton's double started him to his 10th defeat.

Danny Cater's fifth straight single scored Mike Hershberger, who opened the 12th inning with a double, with the deciding Kansas City run. It was the A's third straight extra-inning game.

Frank Robinson's 26th home run with Boog Powell on base pinned the defeat on the Twins. Robinson's four-bagger tagged Dean Chance with his 10th defeat as he made his first start since his no-hitter last Friday against Cleveland.

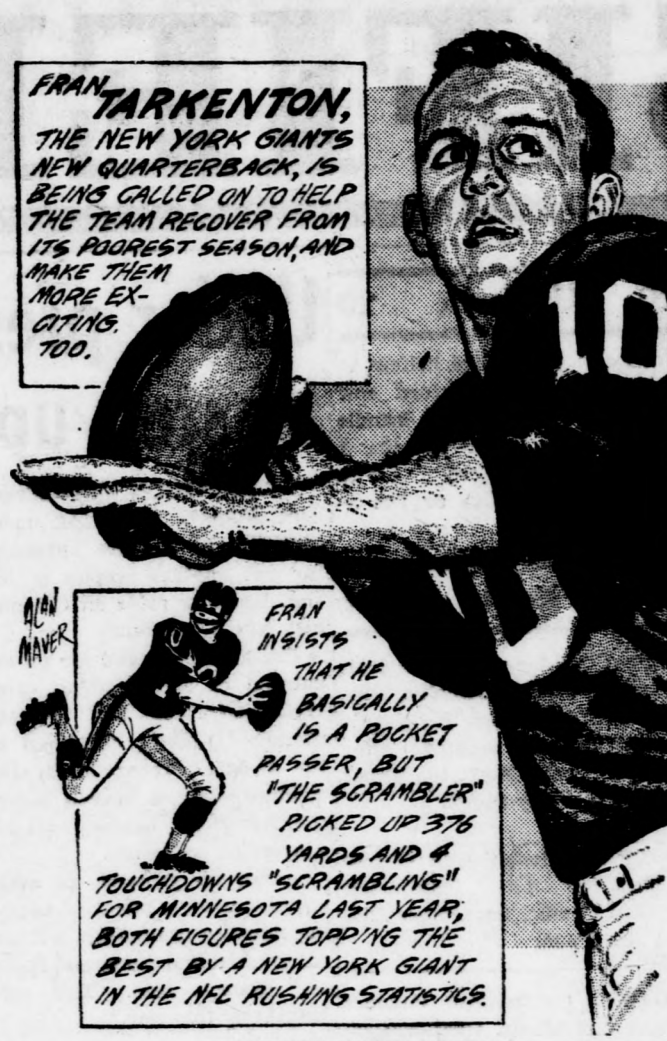

Stickman
BUFFALO, N.Y. UPI — Gary Dornhoefer, obtained by the fledgling Philadelphia Flyers from the Boston Bruins in the expansion draft, Wednesday won the second annual National Hockey League golf tournament with a 27-hole total of 109.

Dornhoefer, a 24-year-old wing, shot a 35 on the final day of the rain-abbreviated tournament over the Transit Valley Country Club course. The event was originally scheduled for 36 holes.

Two Lake Michigan species also have been added: the steelhead trout and the coho salmon. The steelhead is actually a rainbow trout which has migrated to Lake Michigan and in all probability will attempt to return to tributary streams to spawn. Physical features other than coloration are identical to the rainbow trout.

The coho or silver salmon has been recently introduced from the Pacific Coast by the State of Michigan. Large numbers have been found this year in Indiana waters of Lake Michigan. Feeding, spawning and migration habits are similar to those of the steelhead. It is as desirable as the steelhead in the game fish category.

GIANT OF GIANTS? - By Alan Maver

Speedy Streak wins

DU QUOIN, Ill. UPI — Speedy Streak, a horse with athlete's foot, Wednesday won harness racing's top 3-year-old trotting stake, the Hambletonian.

It was the first evidence that Speedy Streak warranted the lofty $113,000 he brought on the sales block as a yearling, when the fact that he was a full brother of Speedy Scot sent the price soaring.

But Speedy Streak's purchasers, Gainesway Farm of Lexington, Ky. and K.D. Owen of Houston, Tex., were unaware of a fungus infection on the heels of both front hooves, which limited competition for the horse as a 2-year-old.

He went to the gate only 18 times and won only twice and during the winter received radium treatment in a lead-lined stall at Purdue University.

In 1967 he'd been out only nine times, winning twice, as the fungus infection on the feet returned. Now his treatment consists of a lotion developed by a 64-year-old groom, Don Echelberry of Republic, Ohio.

Speedy Streak led almost the last half mile to win the first heat of the $122,650 stake in 2:00, and his driver Del Cameron brought him winging out of the turn into the stretch to grab the second heat in 2:01 for the winner's payoff of $60,098.50.

Keystone Pride, driven by Billy Haughton, was second in the first heat and third in the next for an overall second place and $30,049.25, while Speed Model, piloted by Art Hult, was seventh and second to finish third for $14,423.64.

fishing report
CENTRAL INDIANA: Fishing activity is average at Prairie Creek and Kokomo Reservoirs. The water condition is good but a little low. Fair amounts of crappies have been reported taken by our fieldman and bluegills are biting on beemoths with a few large-mouth bass hitting artificial baits. Good channel catfish catches are coming from the Kokomo Reservoir.

Those fishing at Geist Reservoir are taking home catches of catfish using turtle liver and night crawlers. Bass fishing is picking up as anglers are using artificial worms and top-water bait early and late. Bluegill catches are improving by using worms and wet flies. Crappie fishing remains rather low.

Catches at Morse Reservoir consists of crappies taken on minnows and jigs; catfish on the usual catfish baits; and bluegills on worms and artificials. The water is normal but has been a little low.

At Raccoon Lake bass are taking deep-running artificials and top-water baits early and late; bluegills are hitting redworms and crickets, and crappies are starting to bite on jigs and minnows.

Large flathead and blue catfish are being caught using set lines and some bass are taking deep-running artificials and top-water baits at night.

Joe Brown fought 13 rounds with a useless broken right arm when he won the world boxing lightweight title from Bud Smith on a 15-round decision Aug. 14, 1956.

Eppe Rixey holds the club mark for most victories by a Cincinnati pitcher by winning 179 games for the Reds from 1921 through 1933.

Record fish list being expanded
The Indiana Record Fish List — an annual compilation made by the Indiana Department of Natural Resources — is being expanded.

Heretofore the Department's Fish and Game Division has not listed the blue catfish because of difficulty in distinguishing it by photograph from the channel catfish. Better photographic techniques now make it possible to be more specific. Blue catfish entries should be photographed from the side against a white background.

Two Lake Michigan species also have been added: the steelhead trout and the coho salmon. The steelhead is actually a rainbow trout which has migrated to Lake Michigan and in all probability will attempt to return to tributary streams to spawn. Physical features other than coloration are identical to the rainbow trout.

The coho or silver salmon has been recently introduced from the Pacific Coast by the State of Michigan. Large numbers have been found this year in Indiana waters of Lake Michigan. Feeding, spawning and migration habits are similar to those of the steelhead. It is as desirable as the steelhead in the game fish category.

Wimbledon repeat is prospect

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. UPI — A Wimbledon repeat is in prospect for Forest Hills.

Mrs. Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., and Australia's John Newcombe, easy Wimbledon winners, rate as No. 1's all the way in the 86th U.S. lawn tennis singles championships opening today.

They're not only top-seeded on their reputation but top-favored on current play after teaming with other partners to score in the recent U.S. doubles at Chestnut Hill, Mass.

While those two favorites are waiting for their starting turns on Friday today's opening program brings out 31-year-old warhorse Roy Emerson of Australia, fourth-seeded Nivola Pilic of Yugoslavia, fifth-seeded Cliff Drysdale of South Africa and America's chief hope—seventh-seeded Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio.

Emerson, 1964 winner and current holder of the Australian and French crowns, was down for a breather against George Goven of France, Pilic against Lamar Roemer of Houston, Drysdale against Lt. Ed Newman of the U.S. Marines and Graebner with Sherwood Stewart of Baytown, Tex.

With Army Lt. Art Ashe absent, Graebner, eighth-seeded Chuck Piasselli, Puerto Rico, Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., and Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., represent about all the strength the U.S. can muster in an effort to keep the title from going overseas for the 12th straight time.

On the distaff side, Mrs. King will have to contend with a strong foreign contingent including Ann Jones of England, Francoise Durr of France, Lesley Turner of Australia and several Americans girls.

Miss Nancy Richey, of San Angelo, Tex., 18-year-old Rosemary Casals of San Francisco and Kathy Harter of Seal Beach, Calif., are among the top contenders along with Kerry Melville of Australia and Virginia Wade of Great Britain.

The decision to halt play with one-fourth of the field finished was a welcome one to many, but it left some of them disgruntled. It meant that single rounds will be played Thursday and Friday, weather permitting, with 36 holes of play crammed into Saturday, the normal wind-up day.

If there is another rainout, the 36-hole finale will be on Sunday. Because of the doubled-up play, tournament sponsors cut the number of qualifiers after the second round from the top 60 and ties to 50 and ties.

Tribe wins, 2-1
INDIANAPOLIS UPI — The Indianapolis Indians, fresh from a four-game sweep over Denver, open a six-game, season-ending Pacific Coast League series with Oklahoma City here tonight.

The Tribe completed the sweep of the four-game series with Denver with a 2-1 victory Wednesday night to remain in contention for second place in the league's eastern division. San Diego already has clinched the division pennant.

The Indians scored the winning run in the eighth inning on a single by Jim Stewart and a triple by Jim Hicks.

World series plans

NEW YORK UPI — Ten major league teams, five from each league, were invited Wednesday to meet with baseball commissioner William D. Eckert, on Sept. 6 to discuss plans for the World Series.

Boston, Minnesota, Detroit, Chicago and California were the invited American League teams and St. Louis, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Chicago and San Francisco will attend from the National League.

Robb out

ST. LOUIS UPI — St. Louis Cardinals, the top defensive team in the National Football League last season, suffered a major setback Wednesday when defensive end Joe Robb underwent knee surgery.

Robb, a 30-year veteran of nine NFL seasons, aggravated the already sore knee in the Cards' loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers last Saturday. He had his knee cartilage repaired and he is expected to be sidelined for about four weeks.

Monteith signs

DETROIT UPI — Henry Monteith, 21, a former left winger at the University of Toronto where he scored 80 goals and 95 assists in 57 games, was signed Wednesday by the Detroit Red Wings.

Sid Abel, the Red Wing coach, called Monteith "the best collegiate hockey player in Canada. We think he has a good chance to make our club this season."

Boating safety Course Oct. 2

The first course in boating safety authorized as a result of action by the 1967 Indiana Legislature will begin in Indianapolis October 2.

This course will help to implement a new law which makes it illegal for any person under the age of 14 to operate watercraft with a horsepower rating exceeding 25 miles per hour except under three specific conditions.

These conditions are that the under-14 boat operator must be accompanied by a person over 18 years of age, or be accompanied by a person holding a certificate granted at the end of the boat safety course, or himself have completed the course.

The class will be conducted on eight Monday evenings, starting October 2. It will begin at 7:30 P.M. each time and will be held in Room 231, a science-lecture room, at Arlington High School in Indianapolis.

The class is open to Indiana citizens of all ages and there is no tuition fee.

The course is entitled "Basic Seamanship and Safe Boat Handling." It will be conducted by Flotilla 1703 of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary. Upon satisfactory completion of the course, the individual taking it receives a certificate.

Prospective members of the class will be expected to arrive prior to 7:30 P.M. at the October 2 session.

Under pressure to step up raids

WASHINGTON UPI—President Johnson is coming under increasingly intense pressure for yet another stepup in the U.S. bombing raids on Communist North Vietnam.

The latest demand for an expansion of the bombing came Wednesday from Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, in a speech before the American Legion national convention in Boston.

"I see no prospect of early success under a policy of applying military pressure in a limited, gradual and piecemeal fashion," Stennis said. "This only lengthens the war."

The Mississippi Democrat, whose subcommittee has been conducting hearings on the air war in Vietnam over the past two weeks, urged that an overall plan for winning the war be developed by "military men."

The plan should include "the use of all conventional ground, naval and air power necessary to win as quickly as possible and bring our men home."

Though the Stennis subcommittee's hearings have been closed, enough testimony has been "leaked" to point to the existence of a split between the joint chiefs of staff and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara on the bombing strategy.

In a public statement last week, McNamara said that an all-out air war in the North would not slow the pace of the war in the South and would involve unacceptable risks of a confrontation with Red China of Russia.

But the military men told the subcommittee they would like to mine the North Vietnamese port of Haiphong, force ships to unload their cargo into barges outside, then bomb the barges as they moved into shore.

Marine commandant Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr. has been the most outspoken member of the joint chiefs in public. In a speech to the Legion Tuesday he said bombing is the "principal means of striking the enemy sanctuary," and he urged that the pace be maintained.

Sent cable

BELGRADE UPI—The Yugoslav Youth Union sent a cable to the Greek government Wednesday protesting the reported arrest and "torture" of composer Mikis Theodorakis, who wrote the scores for the movies "Zorba the Greek," and "The Lovers of Teruel."

U.S. casualties exceed 92, 000

SAIGON UPI—American casualties in the Vietnam war rose past the 92,000 mark last week, U.S. spokesmen said today.

U.S. forces suffered 125 combat deaths, bringing to 12,730 the number of Americans killed in battle since 1961.

The death toll was up 17 from the previous week. South Vietnamese forces reported 101 deaths, 61 less than the week before.

U.S. officials said 1,078 Americans were wounded during the week ending last Saturday. Only

"I see no prospect of early success under a policy of applying military pressure in a limited, gradual and piecemeal fashion," Stennis said. "This only lengthens the war."

The Mississippi Democrat, whose subcommittee has been conducting hearings on the air war in Vietnam over the past two weeks, urged that an overall plan for winning the war be developed by "military men."

The plan should include "the use of all conventional ground, naval and air power necessary to win as quickly as possible and bring our men home."

Though the Stennis subcommittee's hearings have been closed, enough testimony has been "leaked" to point to the existence of a split between the joint chiefs of staff and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara on the bombing strategy.

In a public statement last week, McNamara said that an all-out air war in the North would not slow the pace of the war in the South and would involve unacceptable risks of a confrontation with Red China of Russia.

But the military men told the subcommittee they would like to mine the North Vietnamese port of Haiphong, force ships to unload their cargo into barges outside, then bomb the barges as they moved into shore.

Marine commandant Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr. has been the most outspoken member of the joint chiefs in public. In a speech to the Legion Tuesday he said bombing is the "principal means of striking the enemy sanctuary," and he urged that the pace be maintained.

U.S. casualties exceed 92, 000

SAIGON UPI—American casualties in the Vietnam war rose past the 92,000 mark last week, U.S. spokesmen said today.

U.S. forces suffered 125 combat deaths, bringing to 12,730 the number of Americans killed in battle since 1961.

The death toll was up 17 from the previous week. South Vietnamese forces reported 101 deaths, 61 less than the week before.

U.S. officials said 1,078 Americans were wounded during the week ending last Saturday. Only

You, Your Child and School

(By DAVID NYDICK)
The first day of school is full of tensions for many students. Nervous reactions are common. On that first morning many children will wake particularly early and will not want much of a breakfast.

Some of this nervous tension can be eliminated if students and parents spend a little time in some kind of preparation. It is advisable to avoid a last minute rush which in itself causes tension. On the other hand, too much preparation also causes anxiety. What should be done?

Generally, students are aware of their new teachers' names. They have probably heard rumors concerning the attitudes and personalities of the teachers. It is important for parents to reassure students when they seem upset about their teachers. Parents can help their children to realize that the individual's relationship with the teacher which is important and not the rumors which are heard in the halls and on the playground.

This is also an excellent time to remind students that the new school year is an opportunity to begin a clean slate. An organized plan for study and play will lay the foundation for a successful and pleasant school year.

Preparing for the first day involves obtaining certain items which are necessary. Make sure that appropriate clothing is clean and accessible. The clothing should be comfortable with regard to weather conditions. Party type clothes are not proper for school. Children should be neatly dressed in clothes which allow them to participate freely in normal school activities. Naturally, if the school prescribes a particular uniform, it should be obtained and worn the first day. Not doing so might embarrass your child.

Notebooks, etc., should only be brought in advance if the school requires them. Too often children purchase two-hole loose leaf books when the school uses three-hole paper and vice versa. Waiting for directions can save money and unnecessary difficulty. Necessary items for the first day are simply a pencil, pen in the upper grades, small notebook for listing assignments and other information, and an eraser. Preparation should be made to purchase other materials after school on the first day.

A student who will be attending a new school should know several items in advance. Check with the school office concerning hours, bus routes and class assignment.

Find out if school is open a full day and what are the lunch procedures.

Registration should be accomplished before the first day.

This will avoid confusion on the first morning which is usually hectic in the school office. School offices are usually open previous to the first day. You can check with the superintendent's office.

Tension cannot be completely eliminated. There will always be some fear of the unknown. It can be reduced with some effort on the part of the student and his parents. The extent of preparation which is needed will depend on the particular child. Parents should be aware of this problem and meet it directly as it arises.

Plans project

HOLLYWOOD UPI—An announcement that ABC-TV is planning a project with a new format—a television novel with no fixed length—points up the growing erosion of the weekly series as we have known it.

For example, when does the television season actually begin with all the new series? Well, of course, for the most part it still gets started in September, and next week will be this semester's kickoff. But wait.

We now, at midseason, have what has come to be known as a "second season." More new series start then, and some—like the Smothers Brothers show, "Batman" and "Secret Agent"—have been very successful. And now we also have numerous programs that arrive only for the summer. So when is the big event after all? Well, still mainly in September. But wait.

What about the fact that most of the really big events in television nowadays have hardly anything to do with the regular weekly series? What about the fact that most of vido's major happenings are either special broadcasts or movies? In short, what about the fact that "the season" actually becomes just that, in importance, only when a group of programs call attention to the tube?

In other words, except for the big promotional outburst this month, there is really not as much of a single television season as there used to be. Like Miami Beach and Las Vegas, it has become a year-round thing.

In some ways, nothing could make ABC-TV happier. For this smallest of the networks has never really had the firepower in talent and series to stay with its competitors in the ratings—on their own terms. It has always done best when it created fads, or rode them, for short spurts, with a few shows carrying the network. The fact that established molds of CBS-TV and NBC-TV are being shaken up therefore makes ABC-TV much more competitive.

The television novel idea is not entirely new. It has been tried in Italy. At any rate, ABC-TV has recruited novelist Harold Robbins to develop it. Says the network: His story "will not be subject to fixed standards of time, but will be presented in prime time over the course of as many weeks as are necessary to tell the complete story."

One can assume that if it appears to be going successfully, many weeks will be necessary. If not, it may be the shortest novel in history. The project is aimed at 1968-69.

WASHINGTON UPI — Agriculture Department officials today wind up a series of field meetings during which they have heard producers warn that cotton shortages may be developing to replace the huge surpluses of recent years.

Farmers at today's meeting in Corpus Christi, Tex., were expected to echo earlier calls from producers for changes in next year's cotton program to boost total production and yield per acre.

Department officials say the farmers have told them that, unless production is boosted substantially over this year, cotton stocks could be critically short.

Specifically, the producers favor a return to the "skip-row" rules of the 1965 cotton program. Under that program, farmers were permitted to alternate cotton plantings with fallow strips of land, with only the acreage actually planted being charged against the individual farmer's acreage allotment.

Although the skip-row provisions were not abolished after 1965, the regulations were so sharply revised they discouraged this type of planting.

Skip-row planting brings higher yields and produces a generally higher grade cotton. The government has not given any solid indications of which of several possible alternatives it favors for the 1968 program. Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman is expected to announce the program's provisions in late September.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

MARGARET HARD, proprietor of the exemplary Johnny Applesed Bookshop in Vermont, tells about her Uncle Edward, who made frequent trips abroad and never failed to bring back for her a pair of white kid gloves. On every occasion Miss Hard would exclaim, "Oh, Uncle Edward, what beautiful gloves! But these are size five and a half, and I wear a six." And each time unflinchingly Uncle Edward would answer disapprovingly, "No Vermont LADY, Margaret, wears a glove larger than size five and a half."

When Israeli troops

scored their recent incredibly swift victory over the Egyptians in the Sinai desert, they captured over 200 truckloads of food and supplies left behind by the fleeing enemy. Part of the booty was an enormous quantity of non-kosher corned beef. "Officially, we can't eat it," explained a glib, grinning Israeli non-com, "but you'd be surprised at the amount of unofficial eating indulged in by this army!"

That 34-million-dollar Arch in St. Louis, symbolizing the city's claim to be "the gateway to the West" and supposed to be finished in 1964, is, what with one thing and another, not quite completed yet. Meanwhile, since the Arch looks something like a huge wicket, wags are calling St. Louis the "Wicket City."

Fire ravages forests, homes in Southern California

By United Press International

Flames and smoke shot skyward Wednesday from evergreen forest of British Columbia to parched brush in Southern California where a flash fire in the San Fernando Valley burned several homes and forced many residents to flee.

Some rode away from the advancing flames on horses stalled at their ranch-type homes. Quick work by Los Angeles firemen saved a church and an elementary school.

The nation's worst outbreak of fires this year already has devoured more than 200,000 acres during August. Foresters feared more blazes would start.

Weathermen forecast some relief from the hot, dry spell before the Labor Day weekend which was expected to attract thousands to forest resort areas for a final summer outing.

Many recreation areas remained closed in British Columbia and in the western states of Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California. Some forests have had no precipitation in more than two months.

The critical areas were Northern and Southern California. Both were plagued by strong winds.

Flames jumped lines during the night near upper Priest Lake. Gov. Don Samuelson ordered National guardsmen to evacuate families at the small community of Coolin.

Two major blazes licked through nearly 10,000 acres in southern California where a U. S. Forest service spokesman said "The fire danger has gone to the 'very high' stage."

The San Fernando Valley blaze roared through wooded canyons of Granada Hills about 25 miles from downtown Los Angeles. It was contained at 500 acres two hours before dawn.

At least four homes valued at $60,000 each were gutted by the flames. Others were seared and flames reached within a block of St. Euphrasia Roman Catholic Church as priests removed altar pieces.

Many residents only had time to pack a few valuables and clothing into their cars before fleeing from the flames fanned by winds up to 60 miles an hour. The 200 families in the path of the fire were alerted by firemen from 35 companies who surrounded the area.

Miami Mayor dies

MIAMI UPI—Miami Mayor Robert King High died of an apparent heart ailment at Doctors Hospital in suburban Coral Gables at 2:35 p. m. Wednesday.

The 43-year-old official had been rushed to the hospital at 4 a. m. suffering from what a hospital spokesman described as a coronary occlusion.

"He was in considerable distress and was admitted to our coronary intensive care unit where many persons worked to attempt to save his life," said Joe Mcaloon, the hospital director.

High suffered a heart attack in 1964 but recovered.

Will do all remodeling, cement work, painting, finish trim-work and roofing.
